Daytona International Speedway Notes of Interest:

- Cole Custer will make his 29th career NASCAR Cup Series start Saturday night at Daytona (Fla.) International Speedway. It's the last regular-season race before the playoffs start at Darlington (S.C.) Raceway on Sept. 6.
- Custer has six NASCAR Xfinity Series starts at Daytona with a best finish of 14th and eight laps led.
- The California native finished 24th in his lone NASCAR Gander RV & Outdoors Truck Series start at the 2.5-mile superspeedway.
- Custer joins Charlotte's sports radio WFNZ 102.5 FM with Wilson and Parcell every Tuesday night at 5:26 p.m. EDT to recap what is going on in the Cup Series and sometimes even provides his opinion on the NFL's Carolina Panthers. Click here to listen.
- The HaasTooling.com/Autodesk Fusion 360 driver earned his first Cup Series win in just his 20th start July 12 at Kentucky Speedway in Sparta.
- Custer's Kentucky Cup Series win put him in an elite category with only nine other drivers who have won in NASCAR's top three national series, as well as in ARCA and one of NASCAR's developmental series.
- The rookie's Cup Series win put him in a category with 33 other drivers who have won in each of NASCAR's top three national series.
- 2020 mark's Custer's first full-time season in the Cup Series, and he is contending for Rookie of the Year honors along with four other competitors. Custer's Kentucky win made him the first rookie driver to win this season.
