Notes of Interest:

- Bowyer owns career totals of 10 wins, three poles, 82 top-five finishes, 225 top-10s and 3,268 laps led in 539 NASCAR Cup Series races. He also owns eight NASCAR Xfinity Series victories.
  - ➢ His most recent Cup Series victory came at Michigan International Speedway in Brooklyn (June 10, 2018).
  - ➢ His most recent Cup Series pole came at Auto Club Speedway in Fontana, California on Feb. 29, 2020.

- In the last race at Texas: Bowyer started 21st and took over the lead Sunday before rain halted action on lap 52 until Wednesday afternoon. When the race resumed, Bowyer showed he was still fast winning the first stage and finishing third in the second. Bowyer led 89 laps before he was forced to pit road with 24 laps remaining in the race. The extra fuel stop left him with a 17th-place finish.

- All-time victory list: With 10 career victories, Bowyer is in a 59th-place tie on the all-time Cup Series wins list with Donnie Allison and Sterling Marlin.

- Bowyer owns one victory, six top-five finishes and 16 top-10s in 29 starts at Martinsville (Va.) Speedway, and he's led 572 laps – the most he's led at any track.

- Bowyer at Martinsville June 10: Bowyer started the Wednesday night race in fourth and finished second in Stage 1. Handling issues plagued him the rest of the race and he finished 17th – a lap behind the race winner.

- Bowyer at Martinsville October 2019: Bowyer started seventh and finished fourth in the first stage. He moved to second in the middle stage, turning laps as fast as the leaders. At the race's halfway mark, Bowyer pitted twice for a cut tire that dropped him two laps behind the leader. Things got worse late in the race when a broken track bar sent the No. 14 to the garage and left him with a 35th-place finish.

- Bowyer at Martinsville in March 2019: Bowyer started 10th and finished sixth and eighth in the first two stages. He started third in the final stage with 200 laps to go but two speeding penalties on pit road dropped him to seventh.

- Bowyer at Martinsville in October 2018: Bowyer started second and remained in the top-five throughout Stage 1, finishing fifth. A loose-handling car and contact with another car on pit lane dropped Bowyer to eighth at the end of the Stage 2. He climbed to sixth in the final stage but, with 44 laps remaining, a three-car accident knocked him off the lead lap and left him with a 21st-place finish.

- Bowyer at Martinsville in March 2018: Bowyer started ninth and moved to fifth by the end of the first stage in the race that was rained out Sunday and run Monday. He drove from fifth to second by the end of the second stage at the lap-260 mark. Bowyer took the lead on lap 285 – his first laps led of the 2018 season – and led all but one lap the rest of the way for a total of 215. The only lap Bowyer did not lead during that final stretch was during the final pit stop under the only incident-related caution of the day. Bowyer was the first off pit road to regain the lead during that final stop and got away cleanly from the outside lane on the lap-390 restart. He crossed the finish line 1.146 seconds ahead of second-place Kyle Busch.

- SHR has four Cup Series victories at Martinsville, 10 top-five finishes and 29 top-10s in 74 starts.
